

Have you ever felt like you were lost in a maze at work? Would you like to learn some tried and tested leadership and management skills that you can apply right away?

Then this webinar series is for you!

Finding Your Way through the Leadership and Management Maze

Join us as we journey through SIX leadership and management webinars (live and recorded).

Upon completion of this series, you will receive TEN (10) contact hours of high quality instruction with proven techniques, resources and skills you can apply right away.

COMING SOON: A Six-Part Webinar Series for Leaders in Aging Services

I: Defining Leadership, Defining yourself

When to lead, when to manage, and how to tell the difference

II. Define Your Vision, Develop your Culture

Who are we? And other questions your organization should ask and answer

III. Develop Your Plan and Bring it to Life

Strategic Planning and Continuous Quality Improvement

IV. Leave Your Carrots and Sticks at Home

Motivational strategies that work

V. Be the Change

Leading and managing change

VI. Pulling It All Together (and Not Apart)

Top tips from expert leaders and managers

Email agingstudies@vcu.edu to be included on the waiting list!